Snainton Riding Centre is a family run business, founded in 1970.

Situated in beautiful North Yorkshire countryside, not only is the centre in idyllic surroundings but it also offers a wealth of services for beginner to advanced riders alike.

We provide great facilities, well educated horses and highly qualified staff. All part of our commitment to providing a professional horse riding experience!

Established over 45 years ago by Alec and Elaine Lyall, the centre continues to grow and cater for all riding needs, with a qualified pedigree of instructors, passing on the benefit of many years' experience.

Alec Lyall is a British Horse Society Instructor. Alec's daughter Charlotte Wilson is a British Horse Society Instructor, a UKCC Level 3 Generic Coach, British Dressage Accredited Coach, UKCC Level 3, BYRDS Regional Coach, a British Dressage List 4 Judge and has a BA (Hons.) in Equine Studies.

Qualifications
